Dillingham Cemetery
Lincoln Foster Cemetery
Red Top Cemetery
Sears Cemetery

Compiled by
Pamela B. Talin-Bryant

1975

These inventories of Brewster cemeteries were compiled in the summer of 1975 after I had graduated from college. I was intrigued by an article in the Cape Cod Times about the restoration of damaged headstones in Brewster. I had always been interested in cemeteries and thought it would be interesting and fun to volunteer.

I visited town hall and was directed to talk with Walter Babbitt, who was the town archivist. He didn't need assistance with restoring the headstones but, he was interested in having an inventory of the headstones and footstones in the Brewster cemeteries. I would be working in the Dillingham, Lincoln Foster, Red Top and Sears cemeteries.

I do not remember how long it took me to compile the inventories, but they were finished before the end of the summer. I did each cemetery with a notepad and pen. A laptop computer would have made a more efficient project. My great aunt Grace Hart would come with me and she would sit on a lawn chair while I recorded the information on the stones and diagramed the cemeteries. We both enjoyed the solitude, the history and of course, the sun.

After I finished and typed up the inventories, Walter Babbitt directed me toward bookbinding and introduced me to Vern Richards, who was an amateur bookbinder. Soon after that I began taking bookbinding lessons from Dan Knowlton in Rhode Island. My brother Jim began taking lessons a bit later. Talin Bookbindery was started soon after.

We have printed and bound five archival copies of the inventories. A copy has been given to the Brewster Historical Society, the Brewster Ladies Library and the Town Clerk's office. I plan to keep one copy.

There is a copy for the Cemetery Commission. That copy has blanks for entering current work in the cemeteries and is an archival working copy.

It gives me great satisfaction and pleasure to know that the pleasant summer days that I spent working in the cemeteries with my great aunt Grace have been, and hopefully will continue to be, of value to historians and others.
